13. Quantity

Buyer acknowledges that the amount of Material ordered by it has been determined by Buyer and not by Seller. Conversion of Materials from yards to tons or tons to yards is the responsibility of Buyer. Buyer assumes full responsibility and shall hold Seller harmless regarding adequacy of the amount of Material ordered. Buyer shall not be entitled to receive credit for returned Material. In Seller's sole discretion, Seller may accept returned Material but such return shall be subject to a restocking fee.

14. Inspection

Any inspection test or analysis required by Buyer must be specified promptly after Buyer orders the Material and prior to shipment from Seller's plant. If not so made, Buyer waives any claim of failure of Material to meet
